May 6, 2013

TYPE OF INCIDENT:

Assistance to Glendale Fire Department

DATE AND TIME OF OCCURRENCE:

May 3, 2013, at 3:01 p.m.

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Wilson Terrace Incident: On Friday, May 3, at 2:38 p.m., a brush fire broke out along the Southbound 2 and Westbound 134 freeways in the City of Glendale. The brush fire spread rapidly in a north-northeasterly direction toward the San Rafael Hills. At 3:01 p.m., we received a request for assistance from the Glendale Fire Department. We deployed one assistant chief, three battalion chiefs, two engine strike teams (10 engines), five superintendents, one safety officer, 11 camp crews, three helicopters, and one communications leader. Two inmate camp crew members were treated on scene for heat-related injuries. On Saturday, May 4, at 2:44 a.m., County resources were released from this incident.
